About Qun

The name Qun means “people” in Chinese; therefore, it is no surprise that Qun has an innate compassion for those around her and has dedicated her career to helping others be successful.

Qun’s practice focuses on business transactions - primarily advising companies and investor groups on cross-border corporate transactions between the U.S. and China.

Prior to joining McNamee Hosea, Qun worked for international law firms Sutherland Asbill & Brennan, LLP in Washington D.C., and Salans, LLP in Hong Kong, which is now known as Dentons. She focused her practice on capital markets and mergers and acquisitions. Qun’s international work experience and education provides a unique skill-set and perspective to our Corporate and Commercial Real Estate practice.

In her spare time, Qun enjoys scuba diving and watching baseball. Her favorite sports team is the Washington Nationals.
